

Logistics Q&A Document

1. What is Logistics?

Logistics is the process of planning, implementing, and controlling the movement and storage of goods from origin to consumption.

2. What is Supply Chain Management?

It is the coordination of production, shipment, and delivery of goods.

3. What is Inventory Management?

It involves tracking and controlling stock levels to meet demand efficiently.

4. What is Warehouse Management?

Managing storage, handling, and tracking of goods in warehouses.

5. What is Transportation Management?

Planning and optimizing the movement of goods.

6. What is Last-Mile Delivery?

The final step of delivery from warehouse to customer.

7. What is Reverse Logistics?

Process of returning goods from customer back to seller.

8. What is Freight?

Goods transported in bulk by truck, train, ship, or aircraft.

9. What is Lead Time?

Time taken from order placement to delivery.

10. What is Cold Chain Logistics?

Transportation of temperature-sensitive goods like food and medicine.

11. What is Demand Forecasting?

Predicting future demand for products.

12. What is 3PL?

Third-party logistics providers offering outsourced logistics services.

13. What is 4PL?

A logistics integrator managing entire supply chain.

14. What is Just-in-Time (JIT)?

Inventory strategy reducing storage costs by receiving goods only when needed.

15. What is EDI?

Electronic Data Interchange for sharing business documents.

16. What is Cross Docking?

Direct transfer of goods from inbound to outbound transport.

17. What is Fleet Management?

Managing company vehicles for efficiency.

18. What is Order Fulfillment?

Process of receiving, processing, and delivering orders.

19. What is KPI in Logistics?

Key Performance Indicators used to measure efficiency.

20. What is Logistics Optimization?

Improving efficiency and reducing cost in logistics operations.